

(Adopted April 7, 1978)(Amended February 2, 1979)

RULE 1208. REJECTION OF DOCUMENTS

Documents which are not in substantial compliance with these rules, District Board orders, Presiding Officer orders, or applicable statutes may be rejected. If rejected, such papers will be returned with an indication of the deficiencies therein. Tendered documents which have been rejected shall not be entered into the record. Acceptance of a document for filing is not a determination that the document complies with all requirements of these rules, District Board orders, Presiding Officer orders or applicable statutes and is not a waiver of such requirements. The Clerk of the District Board, or the Presiding Officer may require amendments of a document and the Presiding Officer may require amendments of a document and the Presiding Officer may entertain appropriate motions in connection therewith.
